

Academic Half Day Cases - Cardiology

Clinical Presentations: Murmur / Cyanosis

1. A 4 year old child is referred for assessment of a systolic murmur heard on recent well-child exam.
2. A 6 week old term infant with poor feeding is referred for assessment of a systolic murmur.
3. You are a pediatrician in a rural center. You are called to the delivery room urgently to see a term newborn with cyanosis and no murmur. The infant had an uncomplicated vaginal delivery.
4. A 6 year old child with a history of recurrent respiratory infections is referred for assessment of a systolic murmur.